Allowable Subject Matter

- 1. Claims 1-20 and 22-31 are allowed.
- The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of 2. record neither anticipates nor renders obvious a cutting tool system (independent claims 1, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30 and 31) or a tool clamping device (independent claim 22) as claimed, specifically wherein the cutting tool system has a spring-loaded element displaceable from the recess in a direction of displacement which is substantially opposite the direction of bias (claims 1 and 22); the shaft, when the clamping force is released, is displaceable by being rotatable about a longitudinal axis of the shaft, the spring-loaded device opposing such rotation (claims 25 and 28); wherein the shaft portion and the aperture define a common longitudinal axis, the envelop surface being substantially cylindrical and the recess comprises a groove extending parallel to the longitudinal axis (claim 26); wherein the shaft portion and the aperture define a common longitudinal axis, the recess comprising at least one groove lying in a plane oriented perpendicularly to the axis, the at least one groove comprising a plurality of grooves spaced apart along the axis at regular 10mm intervals (claim 27); wherein the shaft portion and the aperture portion define a common longitudinal axis, the recess comprising at least one groove lying in a plane oriented perpendicular to the axis (claims 29 and 30); or wherein the recess has a generally V-shaped cross section, the spring-loaded element comprising a rotatable element (claim 31).

There closest prior art of record is U.S. Pat. No. 5,624,214 (Carroll) as is discussed in detail in the previous office action.

Application/Control Number: 09/838,305

Art Unit: 3722

Carroll does not disclose all the limitations as claimed (see above), so therefore Carroll does not anticipate the claimed invention of independent claims 1, 22, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30 or 31.

Furthermore, there is no prior art of record that would render obvious the claimed invention, either alone or in combination with Carroll, and no motivation found to modify Carroll to obtain the claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
